Malachi 3: 1-4

Malachi was one of the twelve minor prophets of the OT. His name literally means “the Lords Messenger”, which gives us a clue as to the importance of his words. Speaking to His people through the prophet, the Lord made it known to them that His concern was not with their dirty clothes or messy hands and feet, but with the filthy mess inside of their bodies. God loved them dearly and sent Malachi to wake them from their sinful slumber.
