Psalm 111

What is church? No matter how we define or redefine it, it must reference our primary purpose for gathering as a believer, which is to worship God. He is worthy to be praised! (Psalm 18:3) Perhaps a better question for us is how does God want us to worship Him? At first glance, that seems to be a difficult question to answer, for worship is both deeply personal and deeply relational with other believers. Our backgrounds, our traditions, our heritage and our understanding of who God is will all affect how we worship. Is there such a thing as a right or wrong way to worship God?
