Could It Be?
Revelation 21:1-8

We will reach many destinations in life, but none will be as important as our final destination, that place we will go to after we die. Everyone has one, and for followers of Jesus the Bible reveals it will be a place called heaven. Heaven is a real place for real people, and Jesus offers a free ticket to anyone who desires to go there. The problem is that there are no non-stop flights from earth to heaven. Like a traveler flying from Pittsburgh to Miami by way of Chicago, there is more than one leg of the journey. The good thing is that there will be no need to check our bags!

- Our journey of faith will have ____ and _____, _____ and _____.
- The new heavens and new earth will be the ____ yet _____.
- Our new _____ will be the ____ yet _____.
