Hear..Hear...
Luke 10:1-20

We begin this morning where we left off last week, renewing our commitment to follow Jesus and invite others to do the same. We have been obedient to His command to put Him first in our lives, we have set our face towards the glory of the new Jerusalem, the kingdom of heaven, and we are still clinging tightly to His old, rugged cross. Jesus didn't bear His cross alone, and neither do we. Let us be thankful that we do not have to make the journey to heaven alone.

- We follow Jesus out of great _____ for Him and great _____ for our neighbor.
- We follow Jesus so that we can help others _____ the _____.
- We follow Jesus because He promises us _____ and _____.
