Gone, But Not Forgotten

Ephesians 1: 11-23

Today is All Saints Sunday, that special day we set aside to worship God and celebrate those from our church family who have gone on to glory. Like thousands of other churches worldwide, we do that not only to honor their lives and celebrate their witness, but to be reminded that death is a part of life that we ignore at our own risk. It has been said many times that there are only two things certain in life-death and taxes. That does sound logical, especially when it comes to taxes. However, is it possible that death is less than certain?

- The Scriptures speak of three different kinds of death: _____, _____ and _____.
- An inheritance is for the _____, not for the _____.
- Our inheritance in Christ is _____, _____, and deliverance from _____.

New copies of The Upper Room are in the Narthex. Please take one!
