How Deep is Your Love?
Matthew 3:13-17

Our feeble human effort to understand God and his divine will can lead to confusion and misunderstanding. And where there is misunderstanding there will usually be division. Historically the deepest of our divisions typically centers upon our interpretation of the Scriptures, the revealed word of God. That is nothing new, for questions about the words of God go clear back to our ancestors Adam and Eve. The mother of all questions, the question that gave birth to all other questions about God is the one that Satan asked of Eve thousands of years ago. Has God indeed said “You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?”

- Baptism is God’s _____ made visible for others to see.
- Baptism is not just about who we are, but why we must _____ the _____.
- God is well pleased with the body of Christ when we _____ the _____.
